HEAD COACH

RON RIVERA
HEAD COACH
32ND NFL SEASON (25 COACHING/9 PLAYING) // 2ND WITH WASHINGTON

Ron Rivera enters his 25th season coaching in the NFL and his second as Washington's head coach in 2021.

He was named the 30th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 1, 2020 and led Washington to their first division title since 2015. During the 2020 season Rivera was diagnosed with Squamous Cell Carcinoma (SCC) located in a lymph node and detected from a self-care check. Rivera continued to coach through his treatments and on January 28, 2021, he was declared cancer free. Rivera was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 following the 2020 season.

A friend of legendary head coach Joe Gibbs, Rivera is a passionate and skilled leader who has earned the respect of his players, coaching staff and the community. He most recently served as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers for nine seasons, where he led the team to three straight divisional titles and an appearance in Super Bowl 50. Rivera was also recognized twice as the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press in 2013 and in 2015.

Rivera inherited a 2-14 Carolina Panthers team as a rookie head coach in 2011 and guided it back to an NFC force with four playoffs appearances since 2013, tied for the second-most playoff berths in the NFC over that six-year period. In that span, the Panthers recorded 58 wins, tied for the most in any six-year period in their franchise history and fifth-most in the NFL.

In 2015, Carolina won its second NFC Championship in franchise history, third consecutive NFC South division title and appeared in Super Bowl 50. Carolina finished the season with a franchise-best 17-2 record, including home playoff victories over Seattle in the divisional round and Arizona in the NFC Championship game.

Hired by the Panthers for his defensive expertise, Rivera did not disappoint as the Panthers put together five top-10 finishes in total defense in seven seasons from 2012-18. Like Rivera, the Panthers' rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins in his first season in 2011 and seven victories in 2012 before registering three consecutive division championships starting in 2013 when he earned his first Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year award. Laying a foundation that included back-to-back Rookie of the Year award winners in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

Rivera helped lead a Panthers team that finished among the league's top 10 rushing offenses, including top-five finishes in 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The Panthers recorded 30 consecutive regular season games with at least 100 rushing yards from Week 6 of 2014 to Week 3 of 2016, the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh tallied 43 from 1974-77.

Carolina's run defense ranked in the top 10 of the NFL in 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Starting in Week 14 of 2016 through Week 1 of 2018, the Panthers went 21 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard individual rusher, setting a franchise record.

In 2018, Rivera coached two players to All-Pro selections. Panthers running back Christian McCaffrey earned AP All-Pro second-team honors as he helped the Panthers lead the NFL in rushing yards per carry (5.1). McCaffrey also recorded 107 receptions, the most by any running back in a season in NFL history and broke Steve Smith's franchise record for single-season receptions by any player. He ran for 1,098 rushing yards, becoming the third player in NFL history with over 100 receptions and 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. McCaffrey accumulated a franchise-record 1,965 scrimmage yards, ranking third in the NFL.

Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned his sixth-straight Pro Bowl selection and fifth AP All-Pro first-team honor, tied for the most among active players. Kuechly tied for third in the NFL with 20 tackles for loss. In 2017, the rushing attack helped propel the team to an 11-5 record and a Wild Card berth by averaging 131.4 yards on the ground, good for fourth in the league.

In 2015, Rivera was named NFL Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as his team earned its third consecutive NFC South title and claimed the top seed in the NFC for the first time in Panthers franchise history. The Panthers became just the seventh team in the Super Bowl era to post a 15-1 or better record in the regular season. Carolina started 2015 with 14 consecutive victories, which, combined with four wins to close the 2014 regular season, gave the Panthers an NFC-record 18-game winning streak.

Rivera's Panthers went 12-4 and won the NFC South in 2013, Carolina's first division title since 2008. The Panthers then recovered from a 3-8-1 start in 2014 to win four in a row and capture a second consecutive NFC South crown. Prior to Rivera's arrival, Carolina had never reached the postseason in consecutive years, and no team had captured the NFC South twice in a row.

Rivera arrived in Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and, despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

Rivera has shined as a coach and player during his 30-plus years in the NFL, serving as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers' top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 23 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 19 times, including nine conference championships and three Super Bowls. The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played has stuck with the head coach, and he has transferred it to his teams.

Rivera's character has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by the late Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

Rivera's identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "I come from a military family where discipline isn't taught, it's lived. It's expected from day one. I have a philosophy that every player, every coach, everyone who works for this organization, they'll know it day one," Rivera said in his introductory press conference with Washington on Jan. 2.

Rivera worked with the Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season. Under Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself – intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air. In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise-record and NFC-high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5 percent) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6 percent). The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the league, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to fewer than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as a defensive quality control coach from 1997-98. He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

Following retirement from his playing career, Rivera went into broadcasting. He covered the Bears and college football as a television analyst for WGN and SportsChannel Chicago for four years from 1993-96.

Selected in the second round of the 1984 NFL Draft by Chicago, Rivera played all nine of his pro seasons with the Bears. Primarily an outside linebacker, he appeared in 149 games with 62 starts (including 12 postseason contests with six starts) and posted 392 tackles, 7.5 sacks, five forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, nine interceptions and 15 passes defensed. Rivera was a member of six NFC Central division title teams and a Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985.

As a player, Rivera was known for both his skill and determination on the field and his dedication of time and energy to the community. As a result, he was named the Bears' Man of the Year in 1988 and earned the club's Ed Block Courage Award in 1989. He has carried that same community commitment to coaching, sponsoring a bowling tournament to benefit the Ronald McDonald House, USO and Humane Society. He was a finalist for the 2017 Salute to Service Award, an annual award presented to NFL players, coaches, personnel and alumni who demonstrate an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

Rivera, who lost his brother Mickey to pancreatic cancer in 2015, also serves as a spokesman for the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. He has twice been the honorary starter for the organization's PurpleStride 5K in Charlotte. An All-American at the University of California, Rivera finished his career as the school's all-time leader in sacks with 22 and tackles with 336. As a senior in 1983, he set the Bears' single-season record for sacks with 13 and tackles for loss with 26.5.

Born Jan. 7, 1962, in Fort Ord, Calif., Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington and Maryland before his family settled in Marina, Calif. He attended Seaside High School in Seaside, Calif., and was a three-sport star in football, basketball and baseball. Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher and Courtney. Stephanie is a former assistant coach for the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

RIVERA STRONG

Throughout the 2020 NFL season, the Washington Football Team family supported their head coach by wearing "Rivera Strong" apparel that supported Ron Rivera and his battle with squamous cell carcinoma. Below is a look at how the Washington Football Team came together to support the fight against cancer:

MARTIN MAYHEW
GENERAL MANAGER
32ND NFL SEASON (9 PLAYING/23 FRONT OFFICE) // 5TH WITH WASHINGTON

Martin Mayhew enters his first season as General Manager of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Mayhew joins Washington with 22 seasons of NFL experience as an executive, including eight seasons as the general manager of the Detroit Lions. He returns to the franchise that he played for from 1989-92 and was a member of the Super Bowl XXVI team.

"Martin is a proven general manager who will bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the organization," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He will be an integral part of running the daily football operations and will allow me the opportunity to focus more on coaching. He impressed both myself and Mr. Snyder during the interview process and we both believe he will be a tremendous fit here. He is a man of high character and integrity and was part of the rich history and tradition of this great franchise as a member of the Super Bowl championship team in 1991."

Mayhew spent the previous four season with the San Francisco 49ers, most recently as the club's vice president of player personnel. He held the position of senior personnel executive for the franchise from 2017-18. Mayhew assisted first-time general manager John Lynch and was a major contributor to a personnel department that was vital in the team's Super Bowl appearance in 2019.

Prior to joining San Francisco, Mayhew spent the 2016 season as the director of football operations/special projects with the New York Giants. In his role with the Giants, he worked on all aspects of the salary cap, CBA compliance and player contract negotiations.

Prior to his time in New York, Mayhew spent 15 years (2001-15) in the Detroit Lions organization, including the final seven as the team's general manager. He took over as the general manager following Detroit's winless season and oversaw the building of a roster that resulted in a 10-win season in 2011 and an 11-win season in 2014.

During Mayhew's tenure as Lions general manager, he was responsible for the draft selections of Pro Bowlers QB Matthew Stafford, DE Ezekiel Ansah and DT Ndamukong Suh. Suh was a four-time Pro Bowler and three-time First Team All-Pro selection with Detroit and was the 2010 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Mayhew was also responsible for signing WR Golden Tate and S Glover Quin in free agency, both of whom went on to earn Pro Bowl honors in Detroit.

Mayhew first joined the Lions organization in 2001 as the senior director of football administration/staff counsel and was promoted to senior vice president of football administration/staff counsel in 2003. Mayhew was appointed senior vice president and assistant general manager in 2004. In 2008, Mayhew was promoted to general manager.

Mayhew played nine seasons in the NFL and was originally selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 10th round (262nd overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft. During Mayhew's nine-year career, he appeared in 118 games (107 starts) for Buffalo (1988), Washington (1989-92) and Tampa Bay (1993-96) and notched 473 tackles, 21 interceptions, 1.0 sack and four forced fumbles. He started at cornerback for the Super Bowl XXVI champion Washington Redskins.

Mayhew is a native of Tallahassee, Fla. and graduated from Florida State University with a degree in business management and also holds a law degree from Georgetown University. At Florida State, he lettered in both football and track. Mayhew interned for Washington's personnel department in 1999 while in law school at Georgetown. He also held labor and legal department internships with the NFL League Office before joining the Detroit Lions.

Marty Hurney enters his first season as Executive Vice President of Football/Player Personnel of the Washington Football Team after being hired by the organization on January 22, 2021.

Hurney joins Washington with 29 seasons of NFL experience as an executive and will rejoin the franchise where he started his NFL career as a member of the team's public relations department.

"Marty Hurney is an excellent evaluator of talent and someone whom I trust and have worked with in the past," said Head Coach Ron Rivera. "He knows the amount of hard work it takes to operate a successful personnel department. Marty has a proven track record as a successful scout and general manager and will be a vital part of shaping our roster. Both myself and Mr. Snyder agreed that he would bring an enormous amount of experience to our operation. It is also fitting that Marty started his career here working for the legendary Bobby Beathard. I look forward to collaborating with both Marty and Martin in the years to come."

Hurney was named the Carolina Panthers General Manager in 2002 and held the position until 2012. He was then brought back as the club's interim general manager in 2017 and maintained the official role from 2018-2020. During Hurney's tenure as general manager, the Panthers appeared in the postseason four times, with two NFC South titles, two trips to the NFC Championship game and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Hurney has had a strong number of draft selections in the first round. Most notably, he selected both QB Cam Newton and LB Luke Kuechly in the first round of consecutive drafts in 2011 and 2012. Newton went on to win NFL Rookie of the Year in 2011, NFL MVP in 2015 along with setting nearly every passing and rushing record in franchise history. Kuechly won NFL Rookie of the Year in 2012 and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and was a seven-time Pro Bowl selection. Carolina was just the fourth team in NFL history to have consecutive players win rookie of the year honors since the awards inception in 1967.

Hurney's other notable first round selections include DE Julius Pepper (2002), T Jordan Gross (2003), CB Chris Gamble (2004), LB Thomas Davis Sr. (2005), RB DeAngelo Williams (2006), RB Jonathan Stewart (2008), WR DJ Moore (2018) and DE Brian Burns (2019). Peppers was selected to the Pro Bowl nine times, was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 2002 and is the Panthers' all-time leader in sacks. Gross started at tackle for the Panthers for 11 consecutive seasons, made three Pro Bowls and is the Panthers' all-time leader in games started. Gamble started at cornerback for the Panthers for nine seasons and is the all-time franchise leader in interceptions. Davis Sr. was selected to three Pro Bowls along with gaining First Team All-Pro honors in 2015 and is the Panthers all-time leader in tackles. Stewart and Williams went on to compile 7,318 rushing yards and 6,846 rushing yards, which is No. 1 and No. 2 in Panthers' history, respectively. Moore has led Carolina in receiving and posted 1,000-plus receiving yards in consecutive seasons and was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2018. Burns ranked No. 4 among rookies in sacks in 2019 and led the Panthers with 9.0 sacks in 2020.

During Hurney's tenure as Panthers GM, he also had considerable success in free agency and through trades. Hurney executed trades for TE Greg Olsen and long snapper J.J. Jansen who were both Pro Bowlers. Olsen holds the franchise record for receiving yards among tight ends and ranks No. 3 overall in receiving yards in franchise history. He also acquired RB Stephen Davis, QB Jake Delhomme, LB Mark Fields and G Mike Wahle via free agency. All four players were named to Pro Bowls during their time with Carolina. Delhomme ranks second behind only Cam Newton as the franchise's leader in passing yards and passing touchdowns.

Prior to being named general manager of the Panthers in 2002, Hurney held the position of coordinator of player operations from 1999-2001 and director of football administration in 1998.

Before joining the Carolina Panthers organization, Hurney held the role of coordinator of football operations with the San Diego Chargers under Pro Football Hall of Fame and Washington Ring of Fame executive Bobby Beathard.

Hurney began his career as a reporter covering Washington in the 1980s. After developing relationships with Owner Jack Kent Cooke, General Manager Bobby Beathard and Head Coach Joe Gibbs, Hurney joined Washington's public relations department in 1988.

Hurney is a native of Wheaton, Md. and attended Catholic University in Washington D.C. Before joining Washington's public relations department, he worked for the Montgomery Journal, Washington Star and Washington Times.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 16, CHARGERS 20

The Chargers delivered the first punch as Justin Herbert goes 6-6 on the opening drive leading to a 3-yard rushing touchdown by Austin Ekeler.

Anotnio Gibson responds by exploding for a 27-yard gain in the following drive accompanied by several short passes by QB Ryan Fitzpatrick to set up a succesful 30-yard field goal.

Forcing a stop, Fitzgerald positions Washington for another scoring drive that was cut short by a forced fumble and sack from J. Bosa that was recovered. This drive would result in another 43-yard field goal by D. Hopkins.

After some offensive stagnation. J. Herbert connects with M. Williams for 18 yards to jump start the offense again followed by a 16 yard pass to K. Allen, and deep left ball to J. Guyton for 22 yards that would put them in the redzone. The defense showed resistance in the redzone with Jonathan Allen recording a sack that lead to the eventual field goal.

Washington begins the second quarter with hopes of scoring in 3 consecutive drives before Fitzgerald encounters a shot in the pocket from U. Nwosu which would take him out of the game with a hip injury. The drive would result in a punt that would lead to the Chargers scoring a field goal and T. Heinicke would start for the remainder of the game.

With 48 seconds remaining in the half, Heinicke uses great situational passing to lead to a field goal before the half concludes.

On the opening drive of the second half, Heinicke provides a spark for the offense which featured an acrobatic catch for 34 yards by Terry Mclaurin and an over the top catch by Logan Thomas in the corner of the endzone to score the teams first touchdown of the season.

Washingtons defense forced two turnovers in the redzone including an interception by William Jackson III and a forced fumble by Montez Sweat that led to a touchback. But with the Chargers offense showing dominance converting 74% of their 3rd downs, their offense was able score again from good field postion following a fumble from Antonio Gibson and managed to have possesion of the ball for the last 6 minutes to close the game.

McKissic followed by a spectacular 19 yard throw to the back of the endzone to R. Seals-Jones as the only touchdown in the 4th quarter.

Washington defesne shows up in the next possesion by forcing a punt and giving Washington the ball back with 3 minutes remaining in the game. With a quick interception by Henicke, the defense provides the most important stop of the game forcing a field goal and giving the offense another chance to take the lead.

Using short throws and managing the clock well, the Washington offesne slowly progresses downfield with Heinicke connecting with 5 different recivers to position D.Hopkins for a succesful 43 yd. field goal to win the game.

BILLS 43, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 21

ORCHARD PARK, NY. - A talented Buffalo Bills team shows their dominance in the National Football League by humbling the Washington Football Team with a 43 point performance led by QB Josh Allen and a deafening Buffalo crowd.

Buffalo's offense proved why they have one of the most high powered offenses in the league by scoring touchdowns on three of their first four drives taking control of the game early in the first half. Josh Allen after having a slow start to the season proves that he is back into his MVP caliber play by going 32-for-43 with 358 yards and four touchdowns and a rushing touchdown.

Washington's defense had a tough time handling Buffalo, but their offense wasnt making it any easier on them marking two costly interceptions by QB Taylor Heinicke and a fumble by TE Logan Thomas setting Buffalo up for easy scoring drives.

Despite many mishaps, Washington still remained in the game towards the end of the first half with a 73 yard touchdown to RB Antonio Gibson followed by a recovered kickoff leading to a four yard touchdown rush by Heinicke. But with an interception and good clock manegement ,Buffalo was able to score field goals on their next two posessions to close out the half.

Differing to the seond half, Washington went three-and-out on the opening drive of the seond half setting up what would be the defining drive of the game as Buffalo conducted a 17 play drive for 93 yards resulting in a 5 yard touchdown pass to E. Sanders to go up 19 points.

Another costly interception will give the Bills another field goal giving them control of the third quarter. The Buffalo defense made their presence evident by forcing three turnovers which all resulted in scoring drives.

Continuing to fight, Henicke is able to find the endzone after completing a 75 yard drive with a 2 yd. pass to Logan Thomas to finish the game.

FALCONS 30, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 34

ATLANTA, Ga. - Washington shows their resiliency after being behind in the first half and completing two scoring drives in a row to win the game sparked by an explosive special teams play and a strong offensive performance led by QB Taylor Heinicke.

Atlanta displays their offensive weapons early as they score on their first two drives with QB Matt Ryan connecting with WR Calvin Ridley and TE Kyle Pitts leading to a field goal in the first drive of the game. After a quick possesion, Washington punts the ball back in which Matt Ryan delivers again connecting with C. Patterson for a deep 42 yard pass to go up 10 in the first half.

Without hesitation, Heinicke and the Washington offesne respond by scoring on two consecutive drives, with a 33 yard pass to WR Terry McLaurin followed by a two yard rushing touchdown by RB Antonio Gibson in the following drive to revive the team from the slow start. C. Patterson adds to his already impressive perfomance by closing out the half with a 12 yard touchdown to put the Falcons ahead 17-13.

On the opening kick off of the second half, DeAndre Carter provides the much needed spark by returning a 101-yard kick return touchdown to give Washington the lead and give Carter his first touchdown of his career.

With six lead changes throughout the game, The Falcons continue to use their weapons and capitalize on C. Patterson again for a 14-yard touchdown reception on the following possesion.

Having multiple injuries of key players, and being down by eight points in the fourth quarter, Washington demonstrates strong will power and resiliecy as Taylor Heinicke and the offense build a 13 play 83 yard drive that results in a electric touchdown catch by McLaurin with Heinicke evading a sack and making a much needed play to keep them in the game. This touchdown catch by McLaurin highlights his 123 yard performace on six catches with two touchdowns.

Washingtons defense provides a big stop to give the ball back and give the offense a chance to win the game. The offense takes advantage of their oppurtunity charging down the field leading to a short pass to J.D. Mckissic turning into the play of the game as he travels 30 yards and dives over the pylon for a game winning touchdown.

2021 GAME SUMMARIES

Oct. 10, 2021 | GAME 5 | FedExField [Landover, Md.]

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 22, SAINTS 33

LANDOVER, Md. - Big plays were the name of the game as Washington falls to the New Orleans Sains lead by Head Coach Sean Payton and QB Jameis WInston. Among a slew of turnovers by both teams along with defensive errors, Washington couldnt manage to overcome their mistakes in a loss in FedExField.

FedExField was highlighted with the color pink from the endzone to the towels waved by the fans to display support for breast cancer awareness for the league wide Crucial Catch campaign.

The Washington defense shows up early in the game getting its first stop on the opening drive of the season with LB Cole Holcomb getting an interception on QB Jamies Winston leading to Washington scoring the first points of the game with a 45-yard field goal by K Dustin Hopkins.

Winston responds on the next drive delivering a 72-yard pass to WR D.Harris to quickly overcome his previous interception and give the Saints the lead. QB Taylor Heinicke and the Washington offense are able to drive down the field and get to the redzone but have to settle for a field goal due to a pressing Saints defense who made it difficult to get in the endzone throughout the game.

DE Chase Young lets his presence be known on the following drive recording a strip sack on Winston as DT Daron Payne recovers the fumble to give Washington the ball back. Heinicke takes advantage of the field position using his legs for a 13 yard rush and using short passes to TE Ricky Seals-Jones and J.D. McKissic to lead to a 5 yard rushing TD by Antonio Gibson giving them their first touchdown of the day.

The Saints respond by using Alvin Kamara to lead the way using his dual threat abiities logging a 12 yard reception and an eventual 23 yard rush for a touchdown to even the game. Washington will rely on the pass game to see the endzone using WR Terry McLaurin and Ricky Seals Jones on deep passes to get into the redzone. A costly interception by Heinicke attempting to throw it to WR Curtis Samuel in the endzone would halt Washington momentum and their ability to score for the rest of the half.

With the Defense holding the Saints on the last drive of the half, Winston is forced to throw a Hail Mary in the endzone with no time on the clock in which WR Marquez Callaway catches it in a sea of both teams players to give the Saints the lead at the half.

With stagnating offenses and stout defenses on both teams, Washington is only able to score the only point of the third quarter with a Hopkins field goal. In the fourth quarter, Winston finds Callaway again for a 12-yard touchdown gving the Saints a two possesion lead. Desperate to see the endozne, Antonio Gibson is able to rush for another touchdwon after a long drive to keep the game alive.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 13, CHIEFS 31

LANDOVER, Md. - The showdown between Washington and the Chiefs could be defined as a tale of two halves as Kansas City flips a switch in the seond half led by QB Patrick Mahomes and their high powered offense to beat Washington 31-13 at FedExField. With solid defensive play in the first half Washington was not able to manage the offense that has brought the Chiefs to two consecutie Superbowl appearances in the last two years.

With a quick three and out to open up the game, Kansas City uses their first posessions completng a 95 yards drive that woud result in a two yard touchdown by Darrel Williams to delvier the first blow. In response QB Taylor Heinicke and the Washington offense is able to get on the board with a K Dustin Hopkin 50-yard field goal to give resistance.

Both sides of the ball displayed great defensive play with each tam only allowing one touchdwon in the first half and keeping the score close in the process. Washington's defense was firing on all cylinders causing three turnovers in the first half complimented by an interception by CB Kendall Fuller, S Bobby McCain and a fumble recovered by S Kamren Curl.

To close the half Taylor Heinicke connects with TE Ricky Seals-Jones on a blown coverage on a 39-yard pass to give the Washington the lead going into the half.

Kansas City regroups and refocuses coming into the second half delivering a needed touchdown that is fueled by deep passes to Tyreek Hill and TE Travis Kelce who found their groove in the second half of the game.

Patrick Mahomes who hs seen his struggles early in the season also began to get into a flow of the game as it progressed making plays with his legs and making the miraculous plays that he traditionally converts. Washington had no answer as the Chiefs scored 17 unasnwered points allowing Mahomes to finish with 397 yards and 2 TD with most of the yards coming from the second half.

The Washington offense seemed to come out of the half slow being unable to keep up with the high powered offense that the Chiefs have. Heinicke and the offense would not see the endzone again capping off the game showing two different overall team performances from the first half to the second.

PACKERS 24, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 10

GREEN BAY, WI. - Washington will take on the Packers in the historic Lambeau Field for its 39th meeting of the franchises. The Packers are able to pulll the win in the air with the help of QB Aaron Rodgers going 27-of-35 with 274 yards and three touchdowns. While having more time of possesion and frequent red zone trips, Washington is not able to complete drives with points.

Winning the toss and differing to the second half, The Packers were given the first possesion of the game and displayed an efficient and risk taking offense with Rodgers at quarterback. Determined to have a touchdown on the first drive, the Packers go for it on fourth down on their own 17-yard line that would convert into a 17-yard touchdwon pass to Davante Adams.

In similair fashion, Washington responds by QB Taylor Heinicke connecting with T. McLaurin early, delivering three passes with the last being a 40-yard deep pass to the endzone to tie the game in the first quarter.

The Washington defense seemed to recover from the previous scoring possesion by Jon Allen recording a sack forcing a 3-and-out giving the offense the ball back. The next two possesions would result in a blocked field goal by both teams stalemating the score to be tied for a majority of the second quarter.

To close out the half, Rodgers would lead a drive highlighted by WR A. Lazard, connecting with the recivever five times for a total of 60 yards and finishing the drive with a 10-yard pass from Rodgers to close out the half.

Washington starts the second half with Heinicke fumbling the ball on the second play of the drive setting up Green Bay with great field position and an eventual 20-yard touchdown pass to TE R. Tonyan to give Green Bay a two possesion lead early in the second half.

In the following drive, Washington completes an impressive drive fueled by a series of trick plays and short passes that would lead to a chance to score from their own three yard line. What was thought to be a rushing touchdwon by Heinicke, gets called back after review marking the runner down short of the goal line. In efforts to cut the lead, Coach Rivera chooses to go for it on fourth down which would not be succesful.

Rodgers would again piece together a 75-yard drive leading to a succesful field goal by M. Crosby that would make it a three possesion game in the fourth quarter limiting the possibility of a comeback. Washington follows up with Chris Blewitt having his first succesful field goal in his NFL career.

A desperate attempt to onside kick would not go in Washingtons favor as Rodgers wastes time off of the clock leaving Washington to close the game out with the last possesion.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 29, BUCCANEERS 19

LANDOVER, Md. - Washington upsets the defending SuperBowl Champions with an impressive performance on both sides of the ball to give them a much needed boost coming out of the Bye Week. QB Taylor Heinicke lead the way with a stellar performance on offense as the defense is able to contain Tom Brady and the high powered Tampa offense.

Electing to recieve the ball to start the game, Tampa wanted to assert their dominacne on offense early in the game. Washingtons defense answered the call by holding Tmapa to a three-and-out to start the game which would then be followed by succesful 46-yard field goal by Joey Slye to put Washington on the board first.

On the following drive, CB William Jackson III is able to intercept Brady on the second play of the drive caused by good coverage from Safety Kam Curl that would give Washington another succesful kick from Joey Slye to give Washington the six point lead.

A rareity for the legendary QB, Safety Bobby McCain intercepts Brady on the fifth play of the following drive caused by pressure from the defensive line and sound coverage from LB Cole Holcomb to give Washington the ball to finish the first quarter. The Washington defense produced what was its best quarter of defense this season only being on the field for a total of 10 plays and delivering two interceptions and giving up a total of 13 yards.

Looking to capitalize on the second interception, Heinicke and the offense is able to drive down the field, going for it on a forth and short situation to continue the drive. in the redzone Heinicke is able to connect with WR DeAndre Carter on a 20-yard pass to the endzone to give Washington a two possesion lead.

Trying to put the first half behind them, Tampa Bay is the first to score a touchdwon with a 6-yard pass to Brate to cut the lead shorter and revive the offense that was stagnant in the first half.
Washington responds by having a creative drive using passes to recievers Dax Milne, Cam Sims, and a strong running game that would be rewarded with a 1-yards touchdown rush by Antonio Gibson to give Washington a more comfortable lead.

Brady who has completed mutliple comebacks in his career was gearing towards another one as he is able to find WR Mike Evans on a broken coverage to score and again make it a one possesion game.
In response, the Washington offense has the longest drive of the season completing an 19-play 80 yard drive resulting in another rushing touchdown by Antonio Gibson to seal the fate of the game.

PANTHERS 21, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 27

CHARLOTTE, NC. - Washington defeats the Carolina Panthers in the homecoming of Head Coach Ron RIvera to Bank of America Stadium where he coached for nine seasons and making a Super Bowl Appearance in 2015. WIth Cam Newton also making his return, making his first start with Carolina since being released in 2019 by the organization making the game that more special on both ends.

With all of the focus on Coach RIvera and Cam Newton, QB Taylor Heinicke proved to be the real star of the game having one of his best performances of his career going 16-for-22 with 206 yards and three touchdwons to lead Washington to victory.

Carolina made noise right out of the gate scoring on the first drive giving the fans a nostalgic scene as Newton made a 10-yard pass to Dj Moore which would be the lone scoring drive of the first quarter.

After quick series on both sdies, Heinicke and the Washington offense are able to find their groove completing a drive in the beginning of the second quarter featured with an impressive contested catch by WR Terry McLaurin and capped with a 6-yard touchdwon pass to Cam Sims.

Cam Newton displaying his dual ability at quarterback, shows that he can still move using a series of read options and scrambles eventually leading to an explosive 24-yard rushing touchdown by the quarterback to retain the lead.

To close out the half, the Wahington offense is able to drive the ball through the air with Heinicke connecting with DeAndre Carter and Adam Humphries for big gains. In the redzone Heinicke finds McLaurin where the star reciver is able to make yet another contested catch in the endzone to tie the game.

Receiving the ball to start the second half, Washington was a mission and it showed in their first drive of the half. This drive the focus was the ground game and Antonio GIbson lead the charge rushing for 40 yards in the drive alone to set up a touchdwon pass to DeAndre Carter to give Washington their first lead of the day.

Newton respond in the fourth quarter by connecting with their star running back Christian McCaffrey for a deep 27-yard pass to the endzone to tie the game once again. The Washington defense showed up in a big way in the fourth quarter forcing two fourth down stops for their last two possesions allowing Washington Kicker Joey Slye to secure two back to back field goals.

In the Panthers last drive, the Washington secondary halts Carolinas receivers forcing a desperate fourth down attempt to keep the drive alive. With Newton dropping back, Daron Payne and James Smith-Williams share a game winning sack to give Coach Rivera a win on his return and a 3-1 reord against the NFC South.

LANDOVER, Md. - Washington evades a close game with Seattle to notch their third consecutive win behind a strong defensive performance and a stellar running game. RB Antonio Gibson is used heavily in the game plan as he records a career high 29 carries for 111 yards on the ground to give Washington a long time of possesion and control of the game.

QB Taylor Heinicke is able to get Washington on the scoreboard first by conducting a 15-play drive connecting with six different recievers that would lead to a succesful field goal by K Joey Slye from 23 yards. SuperBowl Champion Russell Wilson shows his greatness early by connecting with T. Lockett on a deep 55-yard pass on the following drive followed by a pass into traffic to his tight end G. Everett scoring the first touchdown of the game.

With both teams struggling to find rhythm in the second quarter, and the Washington defense providing continious stops, Safety Landon Collins forces a fumble on a driving Seahawks team to give Washington a chance to score before the end of the half. Heinikce is able to drive the ball in the final few minutes of the half throwing to TE Logan Thomas and running the ball with Antonio Gibson to get to the redzone. Moving the ball well, Heinicke uses a screen pass to J.D. McKissic who will find the endzone to tie the game after the extra point is blocked and returned for a conversion.

Getting an immediate stop to open the second half, Washington is able to score again using the running ability of Antonio Gibson and finally punching in the touchdown with J.D. McKissic again with Gibson running in for the two-point conversion.

In similar fashio, Washington drives again in the fourth quarter to score again and seal the game. Getting to the redzone again, Washington finds themselves in a fourth down situation where TE Logan Thomas seemingly catches a touchdown pass that would later get reversed and become a turnover on downs.

Wilson, having completed many comebacks in his career seemed geared to do so again, running a a hurry up offense with less than two minutes left. WIlson uses the clock wisely making short gains without running the clock that would lead to a broken coverage for Washington and Wilson connecting with F. Swain for a deep 32-yard touchdown setting up Seattle to attempt a two-point conversion to tie the game. CB Kendall Fuller makes the play of the game intercepting Wilson on a throw in the middle of the endzone to prevent the tie.

In a desperate attempt to recover an onside kick, Seattle recovers but would be flagged for an illegal formation. In another attempt to conduct an onside kick, WR Adam Humphries recovers the ball which would lead to the third straight win for Washington.

LAS VEGAS RAIDERS 15, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 17

LAS VEGAS, NV. - Washington pulls off yet another close game with a great defensive performance and solid ball management to beat their first AFC team of the season for their fourth consecutive win. This marks Washingtons first win at Allegiant Stadium and ties the record against the Raiders to 7-7.

QB Taylor Heinicke and the Washington offense assert their dominance early by completing 9-play 75-yard drive on the opening drive resulting in a 7-yard acrobatic one handed touchdown reception by TE Logan Thomas. RB Antonio Gibson lead the charge in the impressive first drive rushing for 22 yards on the first play of the game. Heinicke was able to share the wealth connecting with TE John Bates and WR Terry McLaurin for big gains to pace the team for their first seven points.

The Raiders offense seemed to not have an answer for the overwhelming Washington defense as they were not able to find endzone for the entire half. This was the lowest total allowed by an opponent since Week 7 of the 2020 season against Dallas when the team also allowed three points in the first half. WIth great coverage by CB's Kendall Fuller and William Jackson, the defense was able to keep everything in front of them allowing for frequent stops.

Towards the end of the third, due to three defensive penalties, Las Vegas was able to get great field position leading to an eventual succesful field by D. Carlson to make it a one point game.

With time whinding down in the fourth and both offenses being stagnant to start the half, Washington is able to create a drive similar to their first of the game with 9-plays and 75 yards ending again in a passing touchdwon but this time to the dual threat back in Antonio Gibson to give Washington a more comfortbale eight point lead.

The Raiders respond with QB Derek Carr connecting with WR Hunter Renfrow on deep balls that will lead to a rushing touchdown by RB Josh Jacobs. The Washington defense gets a big stop for the 2-point conversion to maintain the lead. Las Vegas making their final push in the fourth will be able to kick another succesful field goal on their following possesion to give them their first lead of the game.

With two minutes remaining in the game, Heinicke is able to pass twice to WR Adam Humpries to move the ball inside of 40 yard line and setting up Kicker Brian Johnson to make the succesful 48-yard field goal to win the game.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 20, DALLAS COWBOYS 27

LANDOVER, Md. - After a devastating first half, Washington rallies from a 24 point deficit, but comes up short to lose their first division game of the season to Dallas. Through a plethora of turnovers and injuries, Washington showed that they had no quit in them as the game came down to the wire but eventually halted by a late turnover.

QB Dak Prescott and the Dallas offensive took control of the game early by driving down the field and Prescott using his weapons WR CeeDee Lamb and Amari Cooper to lead to an eventual field goal to start the game. After a quick change of possesion for Washington. Prescott proceeds to throw an interception to S Landon Collins that would give Washington possesion at the Dallas 37 yard line. Only two plays later, DE Randy Gregory intercepts QB Taylor Heinicke from a tipped ball to give the ball right back. WIth great field position, Prescott is able to capitalize connecting with Cooper for an 7-yard pass for the first touchdwon of the game.

In efforts to bounce back and put points on the board, Washington drives down the field in the following posession leading to a fourth and short situation. Coach Rivera who has been known to go for it on these short situations attempts another in hopes to keep the drive alive. Heavy pressure my LB Micah Parsons would lead to a strip sack that would be recovered by D. Armstrong and ran for a touchdown to conlcude the first quarter.

The struggles continur in the second quarter for the offense remains stagnant, unable to create a progressive drive. The Wahsington defense tried its best to keep the game reachable only giving up two field goals in the second quarter to keep it a three posession game going into the second half.

WIth the defense providing much needed stops to begin the third quarter, the offense is able to come alive as well as Heinicke is able to deliver a 43-yard touchdown pass to WR Cam Sims. Dallas responds with K Greg Zuerlein succesfully kicking another field goal.

WIth time whinding down in the fourth and Heinicke sidelined with an injury, QB Kyle Allen completes a 13-play 73-yard drive resulting in a rushing touchdwon by RB Jonathan Williams. WIth Dallas taking the field in the following posession, Prescott shockingly throws an interception to LB Cole Holcomb for a touchdown cutting the lead to seven.

The Washington defense shows their resiliancy yet again forcing a stop on the following drive giving Kyle Allen and the offense one more chance to tie the game. Dallas overwhelming pass rush remained solid forcing a fumble by Allen ending the chance of a comeback.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 17, PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 27

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - With both teams competing for a playoff spot with the same record, a depleted Washington team due to injuries and a Covid outbreak falls to the Eagles in Lincoln FInancial Field. With numerous Washington players missing from the lineup, the team uses its strong defensive presence in the first half but it was not enough to hold Philadelphia's running game who would finish with a total of 238 net rushing yards.

With recently acquired QB Garrett Gilbert and a plethora of roster moves, Washington relies on the defense to be the foundation of their game plan. In the first quarter, S Landon Collins records an interception which would allow for an easy 1-yard rush from RB Antonio Gibson resulting in a touchdown. In the following drive DE Montez Sweat who has missed previous games from injury makes his presence known recording a strip sack that would be recovered by Collins. This field position would setup a succesful field goal by K Brian Johnson giving Washington an early 10 point lead.

The Eagles respond in the second quarter lead by QB Jalen Hurts determined to score. In efforts to score, Hurts connects with TE D. Goedert on a 45-yard pass that would lead to a succesful 20-yard field goal. Afte a quick three and out by Washington, the Eagles keep the same eagerness to score formulating an 11 play 77-yard drive featuring a combination of deep throws to WR J. Reagor and Goedert matched with a strong running perfromance by RB M. Sanders and J. Howard. Hurts would complete the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run tying the game for the half.

Philadelphia returns for the second half on a mission to score yet again with Sanders bursting for a 38-yard run along with a 20-yard pass to Goedart that would again allow Hurts to run the ball in the endzone for the touchdown. Washington having trouble finding a rhythm in their rushing game struggles to hold possesion of the ball and quickly gives the ball back to the Eagles. Keeping the running game as the first option, the Eagles rush thier way across the field using medium gains as their tool to break Washingtons defense down. The great ground game is rewarded by a field goal to give the Eagles a 10 point lead to end the third.

In efforts to cut the lead, Gilbert is able to connect with the tight ends specifivally in the drive passing to RIcky Seals-Jones and a long pass to John Bates that would give RB Jarett Patterson his first touchdown highlighted from a 1-yard rush in the goal line. With Washignton trailing from one possesion, Hurts uses his arm making multiple deep throws with one resulting in a 19-yard touchdown pass to G. Ward.

In a last effort to get the game into a reachable one, Gilbert and the Washington offense fall short being forced into a turnover on downs to finsh.

WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 14, DALLAS COWBOYS 56

ARLINGTON, TX. - With missing pieces, and injuries piling up, Washington is unable to overcome their losses resulting in a beat down by the Cowboys.

The Washington defense showed promise in the first drive of the game with DT Matt Ioannidis and Daron Payne both recording a sack to get Dallas off of the field early. On the following drive, QB Taylor Heinicke starts the drive with a deep ball intended to WR Terry McLaurin which was intercepted by Dallas CB Trevon DIggs setting a bad tone for the game that Washington would never reverse.

With momentum and solid field position, QB Dak Prescott is able to deliver on a complete drive resulting with a 5-yard touchdwon pass to RB Ezekial Eliiot. After a quick drive resulting in a punt, Prescott continues to hurt Washington in the air connecting with star recievers CeeDee Lamb and Amari Cooper leading to another passing touchdown, this time to TE Dalton Schultz. On Washingtons third possesion, Heinicke throws an intercpetion to DE Demarcus Lawrence who proceeds to run it in for a touchdown.

Dallas looking to put the game away early responds by scoring on their next three drives inclu-ing two more passing touchdowns from Prescott and a rushing touchdwon from Elliot to lead to a 42-7 score at halftime.

Not taking their foot off of the gas, Dallas is able to block a punt for a touchdown making them score in all phases of the game. With the starters coming out of the game halfway into the third quarter, Dallas back up QB Cooper Rush is able to find the endzone as well with a 9-yard pass to WR Malik Turner. WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 16, PHILADELPHIA EAGLES 20

LANDOVER, Md. - In survival mode to make the playoffs, Washington falls to the Eagles in a close game coming down to the wire to officially eliminate Washington from playoff contention and serve as the last game in FedExField for the season.

Unable to play the Eagles the first time, QB Taylor Heinicke brings an energetic prescence as he connects with WR Cam SIms, Adam Humphries, and TE John Bates on consecutive throws to drive the offense down to the 11-yard line. On the following play RB Jaret Patterson takes it all the way to the house to give Washington the early lead.

QB Jalen Hurts looking to match the enerygy in FedExFIeld, is able to drive down to the 24-yard line but is stopped by the Washington defense on a fourth down stand highlihgted by big tackles from DT Matt Ioannidis and S Kam Curl.

Getting the ball back, Heinicke and the Washington offesne in similar fashion drive the ball to the 13-yard line but are stopped and would have to settle for a field goal to end the quarter 10-0.

To start the second quarter, Hurts throws short passes for big gains with running back Boston Scott and TE Dallas Goedert that will postion the offense for a touchdown going for it on forth down.

In response, the Washington offense is able to put points on the board again with K Joey Slye kicking a 39-yard field goal to give Wahington a 13-7 lead. WIth time winding down and the offense in a hurry, Heinicke is able to drive the ball down the field connecting with four different recievers getting the ball to the redzone with 30 seconds remaining. With limited plays left, Heinicke throws a deep ball to TE John Bates who was tripped on his route causing an easy interception by CB Rodney McLeod to seal the fate of the game and Washingtons playoff hopes.

2021 GAME SUMMARIES

NEW YORK GIANTS 7, WASHINGTON FOOTBALL TEAM 22

EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ - WIth both teams out of playoff contention, Washington looked to close the season out on a positive note getting back to their roots embracing the running game to beat the New York Giants 22-7 at MetLife Stadium.

Commiting to the run game early, RB Antonio Gibson lead the charge recording a career high 146 yards on the ground that would grant him his first 1,000 yard rushing milestone of his career. Gibson along with the strong offensive line kept the GIants on their heels as they were able to control the ball and gain 35 yards rushing on the first drive leading to the first field goal of the game.

On the following possesion, QB Jake Fromm and the New York offense is able to dial up a solid drive highlighted by short passes and an 18-yard scramble by Fromm that would lead to a fourth and short situation at the opposing 32-yard line. Washington Rookie LB Jamin Davis makes a drive cancelling tackle in the backfield leaving New York scoreless in the first quarter.

With two minutes remaining in the half, QB Taylor Heinicke connects with WR Terry McLaurin on a 40-yard deep ball that will position Washington to kick another field goal to end the half up 6-0. This catch would award McLaurin with his second consecutive 1,000 yard recieving miestone. McLaurin is the first Washington player to reach 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons since WR Henry Ellard did so from 1994-96.

WIth both teams unable to create a scoring drive in their first posesions of the second half, Fromm throws an interception to S Bobby McCain for a touchdown from his own 26 yard line to give Washington the 12-0 lead.

Entering the Fourth Quarter, Fromm is able to use his legs along with completing short passes to bring the Glants in scoring range. Following a 3rd and 7 near the redzone, Fromm throws a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Darius Slayton to close the gap to 12-7.

In efforts to control the clock, Gibson is able to account for 57 rushing yards on the next drive concluded by a 18-yard touchdown to stregnthen the lead.

With time whinding down in the fourth, Fromm commits two costly turnovers accredited to DT Tim Settle with a recovered strip sack and an interception to McCain for the second time to end the game and close the book on the 2021 season.
